Purcellville Man Pleads Guilty to Possession of Child Pornography

(Alexandria, VA) -- David Michael Fioramonti, age 35, of Purcellville, Virginia, pled guilty today to one count of possession of child pornography, in violation of federal law. Chuck Rosenberg, United States Attorney Chuck Rosenberg; Joseph Persichini, Jr., Assistant Director in Charge, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Washington Field Office; and, Joseph R. Price, Chief of Police, Leesburg Police Department, made the announcement following Fioramonti's guilty plea before United States District Judge James C. Cacheris.

Fioramonti, who will be sentenced on May 1, 2008, faces a maximum prison sentence of ten years. Upon his release from incarceration, Fioramonti will remain under Court supervision for a term of at least five years to life. Fioramonti also will be required to register as a sex offender in any jurisdiction in which he lives or works.

According to court documents, between January 2000 and on or about May 5, 2004, Fioramonti knowingly possessed multiple computer files containing photo and video depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct. The children depicted in many of these images were under 12 years-old.

This investigation was conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Leesburg Police Department. This case is being prosecuted by Special Assistant United States Attorney Edward J. McAndrew, who is on detail from the Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section of the Department of Justice.
